

Danish Heritage Seminar

Take a trip around the world

A Danish Heritage Seminar will be held at the four-star Auberge aux 4 Saisons in Orford in the Eastern Townships of Québec from Monday, May 30 to Saturday, June 4, 2016. The theme is Take a trip around the world. The Headmasters are Jørgen and Kirsten Flensted-Jensen. Pastor Jørgen has served as interim pastor in Grimsby, Brussels and Edmonton. As well, Naomi Kramer will talk about the Holocaust Education and Genocide Prevention Centre in Montreal, and Aase Christensen will reveal a very interesting test: So you think you are Danish! Other presentations will focus on Brussels, the capital of Europe, where we will hear about the European Union, the Danish Church and the nearby battlefields. We will hear about Ethiopia as well as about the beliefs and lifestyle of the Amish and the Mennonites. We will hear about Hans Christian Andersen and the Manor Houses on the isle of Fyn. There will be a presentation about Christian Marker, Alberta's first Dairy Commissioner. This year's Seminar is an educational, inspiring and fun-filled course, which includes activities such as workshops, singing, walking and relaxing. An important aspect of the seminar is the friendship that quickly develops among the participants from across Canada and elsewhere. The fee is this year only $789 per person double occupancy and includes guest room, three meals daily, coffee breaks, lectures, free parking and all taxes and gratuities.
